SPOT IT, STOP IT

Scam awareness quiz

Name _____ Date _____ Score ___ / 12

1. Which three tells do almost all scams share?
   - ☐ A. Spelling mistakes, logos, attachments
   - ☐ B. Rush, secrecy or a broken process, and an unusual payment or request
   - ☐ C. Unknown senders, long emails, links
   - ☐ D. Foreign phone numbers, bad grammar, caps lock
2. A supplier emails new bank details for this month's invoice. What do you do first?
   - ☐ A. Reply to the email to confirm
   - ☐ B. Update the details, the address looks right
   - ☐ C. Call the supplier on the number already in our files
   - ☐ D. Call the number in the email signature
3. Someone from "IT" calls and asks you to read back a code that just arrived. You should:
   - ☐ A. Read it, IT needs it to fix the account
   - ☐ B. Hang up and report it through our usual route
   - ☐ C. Read only the first three digits
   - ☐ D. Ask them to email you instead
4. You get a burst of sign-in approval prompts you didn't start. What's the right move?
   - ☐ A. Approve one so they stop
   - ☐ B. Ignore them
   - ☐ C. Deny them all and report it
   - ☐ D. Turn your phone off
5. Your manager texts asking you to buy gift cards urgently and send the codes. You:
   - ☐ A. Buy them, it's your manager
   - ☐ B. Buy one to be safe
   - ☐ C. Verify with your manager on a number you already have before doing anything
   - ☐ D. Reply asking if it's really them
6. Which of these is the safest way to check a link in an email asking you to log in?
   - ☐ A. Click it and see if the page looks right
   - ☐ B. Go to the site or app yourself, the way you normally would
   - ☐ C. Forward it to a colleague to click
   - ☐ D. Reply and ask if it's genuine

7. A voice call sounds exactly like a senior manager approving an urgent transfer. You should:
   - ☐ A. Make the transfer, the voice matched
   - ☐ B. Ask a personal question
   - ☐ C. Confirm by calling them back on a known number or in person
   - ☐ D. Ask them to send an email too
8. An email asks HR for all employees' W-2 forms "for a review today" from an executive's name. HR should:
   - ☐ A. Send them, executives are allowed to ask
   - ☐ B. Send them as a password-protected file
   - ☐ C. Confirm with the executive by phone or in person first
   - ☐ D. Send only half today
9. You clicked a link and typed your password before realising it was fake. What now?
   - ☐ A. Say nothing and hope
   - ☐ B. Report it right away, then change that password
   - ☐ C. Wait to see if anything happens
   - ☐ D. Delete the email
10. A QR code on a poster in the break room says "scan to update your benefits login". You:
    - ☐ A. Scan it and log in
    - ☐ B. Treat it like a link: use the usual benefits site or app instead, and report the poster
    - ☐ C. Scan it but don't log in
    - ☐ D. Take a photo of it
11. Who should approve a new payee or a change of bank details?
    - ☐ A. Whoever receives the request
    - ☐ B. A second person, after a phone check
    - ☐ C. The supplier
    - ☐ D. Nobody, it's routine
12. Why is reporting quickly, even when you're not sure, so important?
    - ☐ A. It's not; only report confirmed scams
    - ☐ B. Banks and IT can often limit or reverse damage in the first hours
    - ☐ C. So the person can be disciplined
    - ☐ D. To fill in a form