You may

- Print unlimited copies of the booklet, fridge checklist and wallet cards for one organization's members, patrons, residents or congregation
- Hand them out free at talks, classes, health fairs and in your building, at one location (or one parish, library branch or senior center)
- Show the PDF on a screen during a class or meeting
- Add your organization's name and phone number on the fill-in lines before printing
- Use the license for as long as you like, including future free updates of this edition

Please don't

- Resell the files, or post them on a public website or shared drive
- Remove the Scam Decoded name, or present the pack as your own
- Give the files to another organization (they can buy their own license)
